

Scheduled Program

S.W.A.T.

We're not sure who's done what, except that Mike O'Brien has invited a member of the LAPD S.W.A.T. team to be our guest. Any bets we'll learn how to tell when they have one-on-one coverage?

Thanks to Mike O'Brien and Tim Tipping for arranging September programs

Upcoming Programs

Next Week – An update on water projects in Africa with Doug Edwards

Club Activity

District Recognition. On a pleasantly cool evening at the Claremont Club last week Ken Rowland was recognized by District Governor Chris Montan for his leadership in organizing the Corazón SuperBuild next May. Way to go, Ken!!

Club membership. Members are reminded that September is New Generations month in Rotary and in our club it is also Texas Hold'em time. For the uninitiated, we think that's code for our club's adaptation of the Republican Party's southern strategy. Why it is not called Texas Hook-em, we're not sure. Perhaps out of deference to USC football fans who are still in mourning. In any case, think about friends or colleagues for whom an invitation to Rotary membership might be just right.

President's Wine and Cheese. This traditional event will be at President Dave's home on Friday beginning at 6:00 p.m. This is indeed Sunrise's version of the church potluck (the event was unfortunately not trademarked), but with a little more control of the nosh. Sunrisers are invited to bring their favorite hors d'oeuvres and beverages, and, of course, spouses and/or significant others are welcome.

Claremont Day at the Fair. Tomorrow is the day, and thinking about 90° temperatures will surely not dampen enthusiasm for an outing at the Fairplex. Past President Chuck invites Sunrisers to join him in a Claremont booth, followed [possibly] by some pony-watching. Unfortunately, Chuck Bucks are not considered legal tender.

Cliff Henry Memorial Golf Classic. It's time to fill in the tournament chart. Members are encouraged to get their foursomes together and registered. Eighteen foursomes (72 players) can be accommodated and that is the goal. So, contact friends and colleagues. Alan Jack distributed "Cash Prize" raffle tickets –to sell or buy– at our last meeting, and each Sunriser is asked to contribute an item for the silent auction. Ready....Get set....

Rotarian of the Week. Cindy Rainey has dispatched an ominous e-mail notify us that Rotarian of the Week begins today. We look forward to this journey back in time.

Finally.... From President Dave we have word that Dong Kurn "D.K." Lee, from the Rotary Club of Seoul Hangang, Seoul Korea, has been unanimously nominated for RI President 2008-09. We assumed that word came on the president's secret red phone, but he says biographical information on Rotarian Lee can be found on the RI website.
