

Scheduled Program

Contemporary Psychiatry

We're tempted to note the appropriate timing of this morning's program, but we'll simply say "welcome" to Kaiser Permanente physician Robert Zondervan, who will identify contemporary trends in psychiatry. No word about which Sunriser will be used as a test case, but we have some ideas.

Thanks to Lisa Hahn Smith and Tom Caughron for arranging October programs.

Club Activity

The club will no doubt be a-buzz today with a recap of last Saturday's mega-day. Where were you when the Presecan memorial shelter was dedicated, the 13th Cliff Henry tournament was played, and the 20th anniversary gala was held? We'll be doing a write-up for the District, and are looking for pix. If you were wearing Rotary attire that day, you're a candidate!!

Rotary helping is not over. Next up is chaperoning the Claremont city Halloween party at Cahuilla Park beginning at 5:00 p.m. on October 31. President Dave has circulated a sign-up sheet for members, and will be doing an e-mail reminder to volunteers. Sunrise is a major co-sponsor of the event.

A reminder, too, that the club Fireside – all members welcome; new and prospective members especially invited – will be on Thursday, November 9, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., at the home of Alan Jack.

Patricia Dillon has again extended a cordial invitation to Sunrisers to join in her traditional Halloween costume party this Saturday, October 28, at 112 Prestigious Street (West 11th). She indicates that Larry Jackson will again provide the music, and the party starts when the music does – about 8:00 p.m. If you have no costume, a room full of embarrassing outfits awaits. The best advice is to retain your dignity and wear a really stupid costume. Prizes will be awarded to the best, the worst, the unintelligible. If you want to win, please bring your friends – but not more than a dozen. Patricia asks for RSVPs: Patricia Dillon 621-9731 or patricia.dillon@scrippscollege.edu. An equal opportunity celebrator.

And just in time for the elections we found this: "Against a foe I can myself defend, but Heaven protect me from a blundering friend! – D'Arcy Thompson (no relation to Doug or Arnie)"
