Scheduled Program

Club Assembly

Not to be outdone by the political caucuses in Washington, Sunrise takes time this morning for a club assembly. We also welcome back our TLC participants from their weekend in Idyllwild, and look forward to brief reports of their experience.

Thanks to Arnie and Doug Thompson for arranging November [and December] programs.

Upcoming Programs

- Nov. 22 – Club dark (Thanksgiving holiday)
- Nov. 29 – 5th Wednesday Social – TBA
- Dec. 6 – Kevin Arnold on the CMC Leadership Workshop
- Dec.13 – Club Assembly; annual Meeting and elections (no speeches!)
- Dec.20 – Holiday Party
- Dec. 27 – Club dark (Christmas holiday)

Club Activity

Special thanks to Cindy Rainey for coordinating the club's participation in this year's TLC. She worked with school staff to identify potential middle school students, and then met with parents and school staff a couple of weeks ago to preview the experience.

President Dave has kept us posted with updates on the health status of Reggie Yates. In the latest news, Kae signs off, noting that Reggie is doing so well that further updates are no longer needed. Besides, he is chasing her around the house and going to movies. Watch out, Reggie!!

This Saturday some Sunrisers will be assisting the Salvation Army in its annual food distribution program. It involves unpacking boxes or bags of donated foodstuffs and organizing them by categories for re-packing in individual bags the army will distribute. A sign-up sheet has been circulating for volunteers for each of the three shifts.

A reminder that the club is dark next week because of the Thanksgiving holiday. We'll return the following week for a 5th Wednesday social – the details of which we expect to learn today. Ah, the holidays.

And appropo—
