

Scheduled Program

“Tiptoeing through the fields”

This morning we welcome back Wolfgang Jockusch for an update on his tour of duty in Afganistan and on the proposed Rotary mine-field clearing project – and, perhaps some anticipatory notes on his upcoming church assignment.

Thanks to Adam Russell for arranging January programs

Pictures, they say,

are worth a thousand words, and we probably should post some from last night’s scheduled get-together to welcome Wolfgang back to Claremont. But we have no pictures, and we don’t have room for a thousand words, so we’ll look forward to some report from Lisa Hahn Smith or President Dave about the hors d’oeuvres, drinks, and “additives.”

We’ll also look forward to more information about the proposed social event in lieu of next week’s morning meeting. Especially since we’ve already paid the $12 for a meal!

And, as long as we’re looking forward, it will be good to know who’s saved the date and made the commitment to attend the District 5300 Southern California RI Foundation Dinner in Walnut on Saturday. Did we make the table of ten that was an announced goal? Stay tuned.

Two youth-related activities are upcoming. The club’s contestant in the Dan Stover Music Competition will be chosen after auditions at the Claremont Community School of Music on Saturday, February 3. We are cooperating with the noon club on the auditions. Rod Parrott is working with Nancy Thum to identify potential contestants and judges. Two winners will be selected (one for each club) to advance to the regional competition in March. The competition is open to high school seniors who are planning to continue their music studies in college.

Later this month our selected Rotary Youth Leadership Award (RYLA) winners will travel to Idyllwild for this annual weekend event. Held at the AstroCamp on February 23-25, this is a great experience for older high school students. Cindy Rainey is coordinating our club’s selection process, and we’ll likely have a before-and-after chance to meet those selected.

Finally, as we come near the end of the first month of the year, we hope you’ve had a chance to look at the January issue of Rotarian – the one with Mia’s picture on the front. From RI President Bill Boyd’s letter on page one to the “Rotary Insider” article about Rotary’s connection to the winner of the 2006 Nobel Peace Prize, the issue is full of illustrations of Rotary’s motto: Service Above Self. We found the “Editor’s Page” a touching – and encouraging – call to help rebuild life after one kind of natural catastrophe or another. The central section (pp. 25-43) invites us to remember –and stay engaged with– people who’ve suffered from tsunamis or hurricanes or earthquakes. For example: “Mitch” in Honduras, the tsunami in Indonesia, or “Katrina” in our own southern states. And then there is the story of Mia Farrow..... Be sure to read it.

P.S.:

- One who serves is not free.
- Serve yourself if you would be well served.
- They also serve who only stand and wait.
- First come, first served.
- One profits most who serves best.
- Riches serve the wise but command the fool
- Time serves no one
