Hyderabad, India later this year.

April 18 – Nigel Boyle, an “irreverent Irishman” and also Professor of Political Science at Pitzer College will speak on "The Irish Economic Miracle: A Crock of What?"

April 25 – so far, a “mystery guest”

Club Life

Hey Sunrisers!! Nine musical competitors, along with assorted parents, accompanists, and music teachers, assembled last Wednesday at the McConnell Center at Pitzer College for the California East Regional “play-off” of the Dan Stover Music Contest. When it was all over and done with, a violinist from Ontario advanced to the finals at the District Convention. But our representative, Summer Swee-Singh, was named runner-up in the competition, and will be invited to the Convention if the winner cannot compete. Way to go!!

The Chuck and Al Gang distributed tickets to the June 12 Hang Out at the Hangar at last week's meeting. After noting a gaffe about the date – it's Tuesday, June 12, not Thursday – (we'll not mention that it's also hors d'oeuvres) members were urged to either sell the tickets or pony up the $125 and use them themselves. The money goes toward club charities.

Speaking of ponying up, in the spirit (or frenzy) of March Madness, Doug Thompson distributed the brackets for the tournament and invited members to predict the winners. It will be interesting to see how things are going.

The club board met last Friday for its March meeting. We expect a report of any new developments. See the back page for other club activities.

More Madness: A driver discovered he had a flat tire and pulled to the side of the road adjacent to the grounds of a state mental hospital. A resident of the hospital watched through the fence with interest as the man jacked the car up, removed the wheel cover, and removed the lug nuts, putting them in the wheel cover. Things became more interesting when, in the process of mounting the spare, the driver accidentally kicked the wheel cover and the lug nuts disappeared down a nearby storm drain. In clear puzzlement, the driver began waving his arms helplessly up and down and saying to himself. “Now what am I going to do?” After watching a while the hospital resident calmly offered a suggestion: “Just take one lug nut off of each of the other three wheels and put the wheel on. Everything will be OK.” Amazed at the simplicity of the suggestion, the driver said, “How did you know that?” To which the resident replied, “I'm in here because I'm crazy, not stupid!”
