

Today's Meeting

This morning we welcome Judge Bob Dukes for another visit. One of our club's lawyers says he'll talk about "law stuff." We assume that is a technical term for what the NSA permits to be said these days. Welcome, Judge Dukes!

Thanks to Patricia Dillon and Tim Brayton for arranging April programs

Upcoming Programs

Next Week – Sunrise's Ambassadorial Scholar, Cate Powell (Scripps '06) talks about her preparations to leave for India later this year. Patricia Dillon indicates that current Scholar-candidates from recent interviews will also be present.

April 18 – Nigel Boyle, Professor of Political Science at Pitzer College, "The Irish Economic Miracle: A Crock of What?"

April 25 – "the Wonder Woman of Claremont Preservation," Ginger Elliott, will present the program

Club Life

More on Ambassadorial Scholarships: Rich Phillips and Patricia Dillon, along with representatives from the noon club and the Rancho Cucamonga (Sunrise?) club met recently to interview a bevy of candidates for the scholarships. Six (two for each club) were selected to meet with the District selection committee. As noted above, several of the candidates will be in attendance on April 11.

We expect some word this morning from President-Elect Al about the board members' training last Saturday in Rancho Cucamonga.

Three Cheers for Cindy Rainey, who was on her third book of tickets for the Hang Out at the Hangar. The Tuesday, June 12, affair is just over two months away. Plan to take a friend and enjoy some great Rotary fellowship.

Ken Rowland reported on the proposed venture on Metrolink on the fifth Wednesday in May (May 30). He has priced out some hors d'oeuvres at Traxx, and it looks like a light supper will be possible for around $20. Stay tuned.

There will be some celebrating in Claremont today, as well as in Florida. While the Pac 10 schools and Ohio State return to normalcy, Doug Thompson will announce the winner of the March Madness pool. 50% of the ante goes into the club's charity account.

We had a note from President Dave about the publication of the April newsletter from District 5300, so we looked it up. It's thirteen pages long!! Almost another Rotarian! But since April is bulletin/newsletter month, we commend it to you. Check it out at the website listed on the back page. And note, when you do, that Claremont Sunrise is recognized for membership growth!!

An advertisement for the 2007 District Conference, May 24-27. It features a collage of images: a cartoon character with a magnifying glass, a man in a suit (Jack Canfield), a golf course, a hotel room, and a resort pool. Text includes "2007 District Conference, May 24-27", "Conference Registration + Room Registration - Share the Adventure! Register Today At www.district5300.org", "Jack Canfield *Chicken Soup for the Rotary Soul", and "Rancho Las Palmas Resort and Spa (866) 423-1195 Call today for reservations!"
