

Today's Meeting

This morning takes on a scholarly tone as we welcome our Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar, Cate Powell (Scripps '06) for a talk about her preparations to leave for India later this year. Our current Ambassadorial Scholar candidates will also be in attendance.

Thanks to Patricia Dillon and Tim Brayton for arranging April programs

Upcoming Programs

Next Week – Nigel Boyle, Professor of Political Science at Pitzer College, "The Irish Economic Miracle: A Crock of What?"

April 25 – Ginger Elliott, president of Claremont Heritage

Club Life

The word from the board members' training last Saturday in Etiwanda Gardens was.....well, could have been better. But it did feed into Patricia Dillon's sergentry. Now we have a quandary: which 60% (54 minutes) of a given meeting must a member attend in order to receive credit for attendance? Hmmm.

This week is a bit of a respite from Rotary activity, but look out after that!! Saturday, April 21 is the District Assembly at Etiwanda Gardens, followed by the Friends of the Library Spelling Bee on Sunday, April 22. We're sure President-Elect Al will be recruiting participants for the assembly, and President Dave will be looking for moral support for the Pfun Club's efforts. With respect to the latter, we have word that Marian Thompson (Arnie's wife) will join the trio as the ringer. Hooray!!

Chuck Freitas, Doug Thompson, and Al Smith are all quite willing to accept checks for the Hang Out at the Hangar tickets. The club fundraiser is Tuesday, June 12 – just two months away. It makes a great introduction to Rotary, and a nice perk for clients. Take a friend and enjoy some great Rotary fellowship.

The fifth Wednesday venture in May (May 30) is continuing to take shape. Ken Rowland began circulating a sign-up sheet at last week's meeting to determine interest and give an estimate to Traxx. The fare at Union Station will be four or five hors d'oeuvres for $35 per person. That doesn't include the Metrolink fare to and from downtown.

Showing his sporting prowess, Paul Henry came out on top in the March Madness 50/50 pool, and pocketed a nifty $170. No word about his secret system for picking the winners – but it stands to reason, since he's a Sunriser!

A little learning is a dang'rous thing;
Drink deep, or taste not the Pierian spring:
There shallow draughts intoxicate the brain,
And drinking largely sobers us again.
