

Today's Meeting

African Water, Slavery

Back for another update on water projects in Ghana is former Sunriser Doug Edwards. An additional wrinkle is a glimpse at another phenomenon that was not expected there: slavery. Expect some observations about complexity and complicity.

Thanks to Dave Hunt and Tim Tipping for arranging May programs

Upcoming Meetings

Next week – we're dark in the morning, with the Metrolink/Traxx outing in the evening (6 p.m. - 9 p.m.). Bon voyage!!

June 6 – Ken Rowland brings a report on the May 12 Super Build.

June 13 – Matt Weaver from the Temple City Rotary Club shares a report about a Rotary water project in Thailand.

June 20 – New Sunriser Brian Smith gives his craft talk.

June 27 – It's President Dave's de-bunking – relying on Plan B.

Club Life

We continue to receive e-mail notes from President Dave updating us on Past-President Chuck's medical progress. A longer hospital stay is currently expected.

President Dave and his all-star crew are off to District Conference in Rancho Mirage tomorrow. We expect to hear more about those activities upon the group's return. We're aware of at least one award to be received, and no doubt more are in the offing. We plan one more run of the associated ad (☺☺☺) and then it's gone!

Patricia Dillon has shared a little more information about our new est Ambassadorial Scholar. She is Alina Shaw from Scripps College. She plans to study in the area of public health issues/projects. Details later.

As we edge toward June, the Hang Out at the Hangar gets closer and closer. With Past-President Chuck temporarily out of the loop, and Al Smith off to unknown country, Doug Thompson has agreed to help wrap up preparations for the June 12. If you have a check outstanding for tickets, please get it to Doug as soon as possible. And be on the alert to help in other ways if asked.

Immediately after the hang-out, we expect President-Elect Al to be sent packing. To Salt Lake, that is, for the 2007 R.I. Convention. Salt Lake continues to have its welcoming arms wide open, and we can hear the hiiiiyaaahh! even over the freeway noise. No word yet if Mitt Romney plans to be there.
