

Today's Meeting

Fireworks

Or, officially, pyrotechnics. We welcome Paul Wheeler to talk about his alter ego – or his night job, if you wish. Leaving aside building architecture for a while, he'll talk about building a fireworks show. Welcome, Paul.

Thanks to Doug Thompson and Arnie Thompson for arranging July programs

Upcoming Meetings

Next week – Bill Arce, baseball coach, will visit. With a long and distinguished career (like Tommy Lasorda), he is currently consulting with the Chinese and worked on getting baseball as an Olympic sport.

August 1 – District Governor Charles M. (Charlie) Barr visits all the way from Upland

August 8 – An ambassador from the L.A. County Fair will help us scope out this year's event

August 15 – Chuck Duskow will report on a recent trip to Amman, Jordan

August 22 – Tim Tipping is arranging

August 29 – 5th Wednesday social event (dark in the a.m.)

Club Life

It was another kind of fireworks last week as President Al chaired the first club assembly of the new Rotary year. There was high technology (computer slide show) and low technology (hand-printed posters). And if that wasn't dazzling enough, there were three new routines – or four (to be biblical): "Word of the Week," "Tell Us Something We Don't Know," "You Talk Too Much," and [for last week, at least] "Who does this resemble?" And that's not all: a new sign to reserve a parking space for a given morning's program guest.

With all that, we're worried about the learning curve. The silence during "Who does...." was ominous. Where will the parking sign go? Will some wag move it to the far end of the parking lot for the DG? Or maybe put it at OLA? Maybe we need an orientation committee to help us handle the new stuff. A volunteer to tell us something we don't know (about ourselves). And how fair will it be if those college folk start bringing their handy pocket dictionaries to the meetings? Hmm.

On a different note (looking back) Doug Thompson took some justified satisfaction in reporting that the club made some $3300 on the Hang Out at the Hangar and a little less ($200) on the July 4th Duck Race. He also noted that Dave Secombe was duly installed as Past President at the DeBunking. Past President Dave distributed some certificates to folk absent from the latter, and returning Patricia Dillon presented Chuck Freitas with one more outrageous tie.

A major item on the agenda was the selection of 2007-2008 monthly program chairs. A list appears on the back page.

A "sleeper" item was a request for assistance with hospitality for the 2008 Rotary International Convention in Los Angeles. The first of several such requests, we're sure.
