

Today's Meeting

Relicious Things

This morning our program guest is Bill Moreno, Director of the Claremont Museum. Will he tell us how things used to be? Will he bring a sample from the noon club? Welcome, Bill.

Thanks to Tim Tipping for arranging today's program

Next Week

Delicious Things – It's a Fifth Wednesday Rotarians' Night Out as we turn ourselves loose on the new Claremont. We're dark in the morning – no breakfast here at St. Ambrose – and have a 6:00 p.m. reservation at the Casablanca Restaurant in the village expansion. President Al took a straw poll last week, and then circulated a signup sheet to see who's interested. We imagine the sheet will circulate again today.

The menu features a full Mediterranean cuisine dinner with beef, chicken and lamb kabobs and one's choice of the house red or white wine, all for $25 per person. The address is 500 W. First Street.

September 29th

Paul Steffen from the noon club was present last week to accompany a printed invitation to club's Fall Round-up & Western BBQ. The event will begin at 6:00 p.m. at "Rancho Trombley," 739 Harvard Avenue, and will cost $20 per person. It features a "Santa Maria BBQ," western dress (boots and Levis), and "fun and horsin' around." And it appears to be a new member recruitment event. We had to read between the lines to get the Pictionary challenge issued earlier, but understand it still stands. Sunrisers are asked to return the reservation form to President Al.

Subs

President Al will miss three meetings and has asked Doug Thompson, Tim Brayton, and Dave Seccombe to chair the meetings in his absence. This will give us a chance to see if the Past Presidents still have what it takes to run herd (note the fit metaphor) on the group. Hmmm.

History is a ship carrying living memories to the future. – Stephen Spender
