

Welcomes
Visiting Rotarians and Guests
October 3, 2007

Today's Meeting

Diamonds

That's what the calendar on the website says. Hmm. Who might the speaker be? Is the program about Antwerp? Will free samples be distributed? Or will we have vacationing Mets, Padres or Dodgers comparing their respective venues? Stay tuned.

Thanks to Chuck Duskow for arranging October programs

Upcoming Programs

Next Week – U. S. District Judge Stephen Larson will speak about the Federal Courts
October 17 – Stephen Morgan, President of the University of La Verne will speak
October 24 – University of La Verne Religion Professor Jonathan Reed will speak about
“The Bible--According to the National Geographic Society”
October 31 – a social at President Al's home (dark in the morning)

Club Life

Word from Lisa Hahn Smith is that Wolfgang Jockusch is touching down briefly in Claremont this week and will be present today. Additional word is that he has resigned his position with Rotarians for Mine Action in Europe, but has managed to get a $5,000 dollar commitment for the club's project from a Rotary club in Germany. [Ed. note: we assume that might be in euros; but if not, we hope that's in Canadian $.] Welcome, Wolfgang!!

Although many members were expected to attend last Saturday's "Round-up" with the noon club and obviously know the outcome, some of the rest of us expect to hear this morning how the Pictionary competition went. We'll listen for stories and even admire the hoisting and kissing (and opening?) of the trophy.

November 3 will be the date for the modified (four-club; nine-hole) Cliff Henry Memorial Golf Tournament and Fundraising Social at "the Gardens."
Gee, that's quickly getting closer!!

We've posted several dates from the District 5300 calendar on the back page. Items range from training seminars this month and TLC next month to longer-range items in 2008. Take a look.
